

Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year

Library Requests

Return of Books

The Library requests the return of all books by December 16. Only very exceptional cases may books be renewed, retained, or taken out for the vacation period.

Experience in previous years other Libraries have experienced the same and ruled accordingly that the use of books during holiday period is not sufficient to justify the wear & tear which they receive travelling in overcrowded trains & buses or overstuffed suitcases.

Very often, too, books in active demand are lost on trains & buses or forgotten at home and other students who relied upon their use upon return from vacation are deprived of them.

Old Hall Tops

Gifts To NFCCS

Totaling $1000

Students of St. Michael's, through their NFCCS chapter, have already pledged $1000 toward relieving the suffering of fellow students abroad. This represents one fifth of the goal.

Old Hall leads in donations, with 11 students pledging. The Day Hops, who were contacted by mail this week, follow with 34 signing. St. Patrick's has the highest percentage with 23 out of a possible 36 contributing. Out of the 200 pledged, Sts. Johns and James has together, 50 subscribers.

Sts. Williams, Leos, Edmunds, Senior Hall and the Married Vets have promised $200 as their contribution.

The price of the over-all ticket still presents a saving. Events for the month of December that are covered by this ticket are the Communion Breakfast, the Dr. Stoehr-Mr. Donoghue concert, and the Christmas Semi-formal. Tentatively planned for Jan. 15 is a Trinity-St. Michael's Gite Club concert, followed by a dance that same evening.

The corsages that were announced for the Christmas Dance will not be given. It was decided that the money thus saved will be applied to relief purposes.

This week marked the last time that Student Relief Tickets would be sold. Tickets for the individual affairs can still be purchased at the door. All are urged to attend these activities to further the St. Michael's Student Relief Drive.

LITTLE JUDY

The Michaelman wishes to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. George "Butch" Malloy on the birth of their daughter, Judith Anne. Judy, little over seven pounds, was born at the Bishop DeGoesbriand hospital December 5.

CONGRATS

Outing Club Planning Busy Winter Schedule

Boasting an enrollment of 140 members, the St. Michael's Outing Club has launched an enthusiastic program which will include all phases of winter sports.

A distinctive shoulder patch has been adopted by the club, featuring a Purple Knight on a background of Gold and Red. Expected to arrive early in January, the patchees will be a familiar sight on the Michaelmen "schussing" down the many slopes of Mt. Mansfield.

At a recent meeting, with skiing enthusiasts prevailing, the club voted to form a competitive ski team. A committee, composed of Junior Bob O'Brien; Sophomores Jerry Shea and Ed Jadatz; and Freshman Joe Zachaver were appointed to study the possibilities of the team's participation in inter-collegiate meets with other New England colleges.

The skiers have tentatively accepted an invitation to participate in a meet sponsored by Rutland Junior College at Pico peak on Jan. 10 and 11. and some members plan to be at Green Mt. Junior College this weekend.

Mr. Everett Bailey, former coach of U. V. M. ski team and a skier of many years experience, recently addressed the members on the subject, "A ski team at St. Michael's."

Skaters Too

On the ice this year, the Outing Club will be represented by a speed skating team. Henry McGinnis was elected manager of the skaters. An abundance of fine skating material was noted at the first organizational meeting. Among the veteran skaters returning was Paul Morin, who placed second at the Dartmouth meet last year.

Noted Scientist Will Speak Monday

Dr. Henri Porsin of the Louis Pasteur Institute of Paris will lecture Monday evening at 8 in Austin Hall. Taking as the general topic of his lecture "Observations on Science." Dr. Porsin will touch upon some of the philosophical implications of science.

Dr. Porsin is a graduate of the University of Toulouse and has been associated for many years with Dr. Jean L'Hermitte, Dean of the Medical School at the University of Paris and a member of the French Academy. Dr. Porsin has done research with the foremost biologists of Europe.

He is the owner of the Porsin Biological and Pharmaceutical Laboratories and of the Diagnostic and Clinical Laboratories connected with it. These are well

Students Petition Change In Lights

By Dutch Crowley

Here at St. Michael's the various class schedules follow uneven courses which often necessitate a great amount of study on certain nights. The meetings of college clubs and other activities, which form an integral part of our curriculum, frequently require time which ordinarily would be allotted to studies.

The students feel that the present light rule does not allow enough time for proper class preparation. However, we are not blind to the fact that the Administration has sound reasons for its restrictions in this matter. But is the rule flexible enough to meet the needs of the individual student?

Would not the following suggested rule achieve the purpose of both the student body and the Administration?

1. The general spirit of the present rule to be observed.
2. Those who feel they need further time for study, may keep them on.
3. No visiting after 11:30.
4. No playing of radios after 11:15.
5. Any abuse of the above regulations to be met with corresponding loss of privileges.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Bernie Brown on his engagement to Alfreda Moreau of Swanton, Vt. Miss Moreau is a graduate nurse of the Fanny Allen hospital. The wedding will take place Saturday, December 27.

Academic Standing Regulations Set

At a recent meeting of the Committee on Academic Standing, Promotion and Recommendations, the following regulations governing academic standing were approved:

- 1) To qualify for the Dean's List, which will be published at the end of each term, a student must be in course and achieve a grade of 85 per cent.
- 2) A WARNING will be issued, after the quarterly grades are received, to students who fail to achieve an average grade of C.

Minister Columnist

Praises Michaelman

The Michaelman's editorial stand on increasing GI allowances was given a substantial boost this week in the influential column, "Just Between Ourselves," which the Rev. A. Ritchie Low, Johnson minister, writes in the Burlington Daily News. Mr. Low said in part:

In a recent issue of St. Michael's College newspaper, "The Michaelman" a strong plea was made to support legislation to help GI's attending college to meet the rising cost of living. The point, it seems to me, is well taken. This column has also in recent months, called attention to the same urgent need.

In addition to writing on this important subject Editor-in-Chief Walt Hawver has telegraphed Senators Aiken and Flanders and Congressman Plumley asking their aid.

Today single GI's attending college receive $65 a month; married GI's $90 with extra allowance for children. While these veterans are appreciative of what Uncle Sam is doing for them these amounts just won't see them through. All over the country men are forced to quit their studies because of their inability to make ends meet.

The Michaelman program calls for an increase for single men to $90 a month, for married veterans $115 a month with $15 additional for each child. In view of the high cost of living today these increases would seem moderate.

It must be remembered that when the original GI bill was passed, $65 a month was worth a great deal more than now. At that time, several years ago, $65 was easily the equivalent of $100 today.

Some may say veterans should supplement their government allowance by working out on the side, just as students have always done. Many already do this and would not be in college today but for this extra cash coming in.

But there is a limit to the number of hours students can give to outside employment as everyone who has ever been to college well knows. Many times it so happens that a fellow can't take on these extras without doing injustice to his studies.

The time has come for Congress to remedy this situation. It is unlikely its members are unfamiliar with the situation and this being the case they should set to work and consider such increases as has been proposed by the GI's at St. Michael's.

Fifteen per cent of the students at St. Michael's College are doing work sufficiently outstanding for citation on the dean's list. Marks for the fall mid-term, released today by Rev. Gerald Dupont, SSE, academic dean, show that 85 per cent of the St. Michael's student body are doing work of C grade or better, with two thirds of the students maintaining grades of recommendation quality.

Father Dupont expressed great satisfaction over the results of the newly reorganized scholastic program, which went into effect in September. The St. Michael's program is keynoted by a de-acceleration of degree programs, a cutting down on the number of courses permitted each term, intensification of work in each course and a general core curriculum for the first two years with major programs concentrated in the last two years.

St. Michael's students who made the dean's list by achieving a grade of at least 85 per cent follow:

John W. Beatty; Arthur L. Beaudette; Ronald H. Benoit; Conrad Bergeron; William J. Bernache; Paul Boucher; John S. Berry; Joseph Brouillet; John T. Brown; Richard K. Brown; John F. Burke.

Richard E. Carpine; Harlan F. Clark; John H. Collins; William J. Condon; George Constantine; Louis A. Corvese; Paul E. Couture; John F. Cronin; George H. Cum; Casavant; Harland A. Cass; Francis

We May Get Fine Christmas Present — Thanks To Mrs. Rogers

Congress is considering giving veterans in school under the GI Bill of Rights a welcome Christmas present.

Despite the pressure of other business before the two houses, for which the special session was called, Rep. Edith Nourse Rogers, Massachusetts Republican, has requested clearance for veterans' measures which she fought in vain to save from the shelf before Congress adjourned in July.

One of these bills — and the most important from the point of view of millions of students at colleges throughout the nation — provides for a raise in subsistence allowances which will benefit you . . . and you . . . and you.

No Word From Plumley

The Michaelman has been active in urging immediate action on raises in subsistence allowances even prior to the convening of the special session. Senators Aiken and Flanders of Vermont to whom telegrams were directed asking their support have responded with letters pledging this aid. Representative Plumley has thus far failed to answer one way or the other.

The Senate had previously passed without dissenting vote the measure which Miss Rogers hopes to push through "without delay". Thus it is that Rep. Plumley's attitude is so important to the vote which must follow if Miss Rogers manages to cut the red ape which now binds the measure. His apparent disinterest in a plea by his constituents in a college in his own state is a trait foreign to the modern legislator.

Deserves Note Of Thanks

To Mrs. Rogers, The Michaelman breathes a fervent "God-speed" in her personal fight on behalf of the veterans. We ask that all veterans from Massachusetts now on the Hilltop make it a personal job to sit down and write here a note of thanks. It is the greatest appreciation possible for a great woman who never gave up even in the face of opposition from her own party members last July which kept her from getting the Senate Bill out of committee and on the floor before adjournment.

The present Senate bill is not perfect. In its editorial stand, The Michaelman asked for higher raises in the allowances for both single and married vets than those forthcoming when (and if) the bill goes through. The bill as it stands does not take into consideration the rise in the cost of living since it was first drafted. BUT — and a big but it is — the measure is the NECESSARY STOP-GAP legislation that this paper requested to keep the veteran students from letting go of their precarious hold on the ladder of education because insufficient funds were forcing them to quit school.

Briefly, the measure will give unmarried students $75; childless married students, $105; those with one or more children, $120. Total permissible incomes will be raised to $250 for single students; to $325 for those with one dependent; to $350 for those with more.

As we said, this is not enough. But we'll take it. When the 81st session of Congress convenes, we'll talk turkey about our actual

The following answers to the question, "What do you think of your roommate?" exemplified some of the beautiful friendships that have been formed at St. Mikes.

Joe Moresi, North Adams, Mass.

(of Jack Orie) He is very cooperative, always helps me clean the room, he makes his bed, does not argue, is easy to get along with, but — one of us gotta go.

Bill Acton, Biddeford, Me.

(of Ed. Rowan) We'd get along a lot better if he'd only sweep the floor once in a while.

(of Ed. Casey) As long as he keeps getting those packages from home, we'll continue to get along fine.

Paul Shaughnessy, Clinton, Mass.

(of Snowball Durkin) He is a good roommate but I wish Father Moriarty would not bring him so much mail, as it clutters up the room.

Joe Hart, Buzzards Bay, Mass.

(of Art McCabe) He is a good roommate except for the fact that he always insists on having his way about the window.

Jim Loughrey, Holyoke, Mass.

(of Leo Denault) We get along fine, even though I do have to listen to his love life. He is a bit fickle too.

Andy Scanlon, Schenectady, N. Y.

(of Paul Boudreau) I wish he'd get out of the sack once in a while — he is always sleeping.

Dante Giusti, North Adams, Mass.

(of Gene Quinn) I wish he'd stick around once in a while so that we can get acquainted.

Phil Eager, Long Branch, N. J.

(of Cliff Edgerton) I wish he'd stay away from Red's.

Kevin Curry, Riverside Conn.

(of Paul Devereaux) He is quite the boy, only I do wish he'd sweep the room.

Joe Brigante, New Britain, Conn.

(of Mike Borselle and Gene Nebiolo) I really don't mind their snoring; it's the vibration that bothers me. (Suggestion: Stuff the mouth with an old sock)

John Trotier, St. Felix-de-Valois, Canada

(of Pit Lamouth) He is a very good Joe. I like him because he is French-Canadian.

Paul Gravel, Adams' Mass.

(of Ed. J. McTiernan) He always stays in; studies too much; and is always cleaning his desk.

POET'S CORNER

Ode To Trinity

We are the boys from St. Mikes all,
How we study and do play ball,
For entertainment you will see —
Us with the girls from Trinity.
The first of the month rolls around,
Seeing our checks into the ground.
The little left what may it be —
We spend on girls from Trinity.
O if the eyes of old St. Mike
Could see his boys on some long hike
A sure thing, it would always be —
To see our girls from Trinity.
Our hats indeed do ye hold high,
To ones deserving of a sigh,
While in our hearts there will always be —
A spot reserved for Trinity.

In their opening game, the Purple Knights won as was expected were pretty ragged for the most part a team that showed improvement above last year. The Knights start, but showed a great deal more aggressive play than in the past. And that is a good sign.

The new "give and go" style of basketball featured by "Doc" Jacobs is going to work out as time progresses. It seems at present that a tight combination, and one that will be the main difficulty is in finding the able to control the backboards. That seemed to be the chief trouble in the opener last Wednesday.

Winter Sports

Since the last issue of The Michaelman, it has come to light that there will be three more athletic enterprises on the Hilltop and this is good to see. The new independent skiing, sped skating and hockey teams will not actually be sponsored by the school administration, but by local clubs or the members of the teams themselves. This initiative on the part of students shows that Michaelmen really have the stuff, and will produce.

No Divers, Please

In talking with Walt Hickey of the Burlington Free Press we have found that St. Michael's has a possibility to field a team in the newly formed Vermont Golden Gloves tournament. He also stated that a team prize will be given, and hoped that we could find eight men interested in this sport. So here's the chance all budding aspirants of the canvas and resin have been waiting for.

INTRAMURALS

By Bob Flanagan

Intramural Basketball

Last Saturday and Sunday afternoons the college gym saw heart duty as the intramural b-ball season opened up with six fast contests.

The games ranged all the way from St. John A's 27-25 thriller over the Day-hops to St. William's 60-20 rout of St. Eds.

Most of them were see-saw affairs up to the half or the three-quarter mark with winners pulling ahead in the last few minutes of play.

By the time the final whistle had blown Sunday afternoon all but four of the leagues 16 had seen action. Yet to be heard from were Old Hall A, Aquinas, St. James E and the Faculty. Meanwhile the week end had produced the usual number of standouts.

Prominent among these were Daly and Droney of St. John A and B; Dolan, Old Hall B; Sigler, St. Leo's; Hadychka of St. William's all-conquering crew; and Howie Cashman who rolled up 19 points for St. Pats.

Fr. Moriarty, SSE is perhaps one of the best liked and most popular priests on campus.

After talking with him or being one of his classes it is not hard to see why this is so.

While a student here at St. Michael's, Fr. Moriarty played three years' of varsity basketball from 1938 to 1940. With the end of the basketball slate, he was usually found out on the ball field where he was a varsity performer in 1940.

Following his graduation, Father Moriarty joined the Society of Saint Edmund and was ordained on March 3, 1945 by Bishop Ryan in Burlington. After his ordination he spent a year in Montreal studying Hebrew, Greek and History at the

In 1946 he returned to St. Michael's where he became Assistant Professor in Religion and also a mainstay on last year's faculty team in the intramural league.

When Fr. Corbett left for England this past summer, Fr. Moriarty was given the job of Alumni Secretary which is at present taking up much of his time. As Alumni Secretary it is his duty to keep in contact with all alumnis and represent them here on the campus.

Students know and appreciate him for his work in trying to get the Student Activity council to function at maximum efficiency.

New Faces Seen In Two Offices

Everyone has by now noticed the two new faces among the office personnel, Jeanne Boudreau, of the Registrar's office, and the Bookstore Redhead, Florence LaFerriere.

Jeanne's from Woonsocket, R. I., and has two Michaelmen in the family, Bob, class of 50, and Fernand, class of '31, the latter a director of the Alumni Association and a lawyer in Boston. Jeanne says what she likes most about St. Michael's is the informality of everyone.

Florence graduated from Winooski High, class of '44. Before coming to St. Michael's she was assistant manager of the classified department of the Burlington Daily News. She thinks St. Michael's has a very pleasant atmosphere.

FOREVER TWENTYONE

To continue with the secretive seduce one who is still in the "long-retaries of our campus, we introduce year of her life," Mrs. Ray Antil of Miketown.

To Mrs. Antil—Ida—we owe a "handful of shamrocks" for the fine job she does in keeping our mail flowing and handling calls on the incessantly buzzing switchboard in Old Hall. With a very pleasant personality, she never tires of the steady stream of people opening her office door—on the contrary, she enjoys it and finds the work much to her liking.

A native of New York, Mrs. Antil lived and went to school at Frankfort, N. Y. before journeying to Florida for a year or so. Her husband, Ray, is a native of Fitchburg, Mass., and at present a pre-medical student in the sophomore class.

She likes her music delivered in a classical way but admits that dancing is one of her favorite pastimes and enjoys roller skating almost as much. Knitting—yes, but it will never take the place of sewing for Mrs. Antil.

Besides the efficient "Office" we get every time we pick up a receiver, Mrs. Antil's other duties include directory service and she helps get messages to the men. And for information, just knock on the door—cheerfully given.

3) A student who fails to achieve average grade of C at the end of a term will be placed on PROBATION. Ordinarily the probationary period will last only one semester. If the student, at the end of this period, has succeeded in raising his average to C, he will be taken off probation. If he has not succeeded, he will be dropped or allowed to repeat the year.

4) A student will ordinarily be dropped if, after Warning and/or Probation, he fails to achieve the grade necessary for promotion, i.e. a general average of C.

5) For a student who has been dropped READMISSION is possible
a) by the successful completion of a year's work at another college, or

b) by a decision of the Committee, after an investigation of the case.

Warnings and Probations will be issued by the Academic Dean, but will be distributed by the Dean of Men, who will apply disciplinary restrictions as he sees fit.

Fight Song Words

Are Asked By Many

Since the story by Paul Guare of the re-discovery of the St. Michael's "Fight Song" which appeared in a recent issue of The Michaelman, many requests have been received for the words.

In answer to these requests, The Michaelman is pleased to reprint the song as written by Father Edmund J. Hamel of St. Michael's College and Father Joseph Doyle, pastor of St. James parish, Cadyville, N. Y.

Let's all learn them for the next home game!

Michaelman Fight Song
O, Michaelman, come join the fray,
Hip Hooray! Hip Hooray!

Who dares our might shall rue
the day, Hip Hooray, Hip Hooray!
For the Purple and Gold we shall
fight, fight, fight,

We shall rally and cheer with a
fight, fight, fight,
With a Hip Hooray! and a Sis-
Boom-Bah! Hip Hooray! Hip

Ho-ray

Rah, Rah, Rah,—Rah, Rah, Rah,
Rah-rah, rah-rah, rah, rah.

Chorus:

Keep the Fight, Fight, Fight, St.
Michael's,

Fight for victory, win or die.
We're behind you, we'll fight with you,

Listen to our battle cry — Fight!

Fight!

Carry on, Fight strong, St. Michael's,

We are watching, don't give in.
So H-O-L-D 'em tight, St. Michael's

Fight!

For we're out today to win.
Boom, Boom—boom, boom, boom.

Fight, Fight—fight, fight, fight.

(Repeat last two lines and chorus).

Glee Club Plans

Banner Season

By Paul A. Durkin

The St. Michael's Glee Club under the direction of Professor William Burke made its first public appearance between the plays Tuesday and Thursday at Austin Hall.

The Glee club made its presentation of "Good King Wenceslas," "Come All Ye Faithful," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," and, on request, "Silent Night."

Mr. Burke has done a remarkably fine job with the members of Club although they were late in organizing. The performance Tuesday as well as Thursday evening, crowds, and showed the public the won the praises of the capacity fine performances to be expected in the future.

Previous to the holidays, the Glee Club will cover the campus traveling through the various dorms singing Christmas carols for the benefit of the student body. Plans have also been made for the singing of Christmas carols in the surrounding hospitals.

Further plans are incomplete although, after the holidays, Mr. Burke will start instruction on secular numbers and expects to give several concerts in the future.

The Glee Club is certain to be in great demand as it has shown much talent already and promises to develop to a great extent.

Another step forward is recorded in the progress of St. Michael's.
